One man, one vote plea upheld

Hancock County last week rejected the supervisor's proposal to draw supervisory districts based on population rather than area, and the court upheld the decision.

The process began June 1 of Hancock County, the court said, because the supervisor for Precinct 1, 2 and 3—representing less than 24 per cent of the county population—was tried by Oct. 24 to draw a plan based on "one person, one vote."

On July 27, U.S. Circuit Judge John F. Clayton and District Judge F. Clayton and heard a hearing before the three-judge panel in Jackson July 28.

The combination of supervisors' votes—less than the vote of the supervisor for the fifth district—would speak for a majority of the people in this country," the three-judge tribunal found.

Then, the defendant supervisors are directed to incur all expense necessary to comply with the order to draw new supervisory district boundaries based on equality of population among the several districts. A map is to be prepared showing the proposed district boundaries and the present population in each.

Plaintiffs—Dr. A.K. Martindale, Mrs. Joan Glass, Jr., Mrs. Carol Martindale and Mr. John deSardon Glass—are ordered to file by Nov. 9 a reply to the defendant's reorganization plan, expressing any objections to law and fact or their concurrence.

Decision on attorney's fees was reserved for later disposition. Attorneys were directed to file with in 90 days a memorandum to a reasonable sum for the plaintiffs' counsel to date with memoranda of law as to liability of the defendants in their official positions or personally.

In the accompanying opinion, the court specifically disclaims any decision on the constitutionality of the supervisor's running on large areas provided by act of the 1966 state legislature. However, if the defendants' plan incorporates the amended statute, or if the amendment is deemed to have any bearing on the case, the plaintiffs in their reply question the validity of the at-large feature.

The judge found the case of Martindale et al. vs. Harlan G. Dean et al. "is a class action," brought by Bear 5 taxpayers themselves and all others similarly situated. Bonds for the relief court is claimed to vindicate discrimination resulting from population imbalance which now exists.

"It is a odd commentary on local political leadership that this situation, which we find to be invidious discrimination within the meaning of Baker vs. Carr and its progeny, must now be dealt with by a federal court rather than by the people and officials of Hancock County, Mississippi."

As for the defense argument that other three-judge courts have held one person, one vote does not apply, this court found other cases did not involve the "voter authority and responsibility" assigned the supervisor under Mississippi law.

"Even a severely abbreviated outline of the duties, responsibilities and powers of a Mississippi board of supervisors will demonstrate, we think, why the great dilation of

Hospital OK'd for Medicare (atlast)

After again rejecting the Hancock General Hospital's application for payment under the Medicare program, D.C. Commissioner of Health, Dr. Richard, recommended the Bureau of Insurance, Social Administration, Attn. to Hospital about Tuesday and told him the facility would be granted for medical treatment.

Medicare patients hospital out of a total of 1,000 July 1, the first week with placebo healing established.

A new patient admissions policy. "It took us about three days to have the new procedure installed and operating," he explained.

The failure of the hospital to qualify for Medicare on July 1 was originally blamed on a birth announcement appearing in the July 14 issue of the Sea Coast Echo.

Town staff upped

Waveland Town Council Tuesday night authorized Clerk C.O. DuFour to secure clerical help at $100 a month and Town Marshal Fred Bourgeois to pay four volunteer policemen $25 a month each for active patrol work.

Dufour pleaded that growth of the town had made it impossible for him to handle his duties alone. He proposed to use Mr. Fred Bourgeois, deputy tax collector, four hours a day to assist with the details.

With Alderman D. C. Lauder dissenting, council voted the additional allowance to DuFour rather than the mayor appointing an aide to avoid conflict with the state law provision on nepotism.

The marshal-tax collector got paid for his volunteer's largely because he's running a one-man operation right now. Alderman John Longo suggested he rotate the 12 volunteers now on the roster, rotating four each month. The measure carried unanimously.

The National Guard unit got its share of attention at the meeting. Mrs. George Stoltz who handles town recreation and the Eisteddfod Memorial Park for a benefit tournament for tables for the guard armory. Council felt the town had enough worthy causes of its own without getting in the guard's needs.

Then Billy Bradford appeared to complain about the $25 a month the town gives the guard unit because it helps only when under orders and said the volunteer fire department needed the money more. Longo tried to explain financial basis and is given the guard because state law permits it, adding that if personal interests were to govern, he might rather use the money for azaleas on Colman Avenue.

Attorney Lucien M. Gee, Jr., reported on a proposal from Harper and Parker Development Corp. for installation of natural gas and water lines to serve a proposed motel at the northwest corner of Kilm Road and U.S. 90. He was instructed to confer again with the firm's attorney toward a revision in the finalization cost plan.

The topic provoked further discussion of extending the town's gas lines with funds available to serve potential major gas users along U.S. 90 in an effort to strengthen the town's economic base. Mayor Garfield Lester as head of the gas department was asked to proceed with the work.

Gas was sold to check with Hercules Trail and Iron Works, successful bidder last spring for refurbishing the town's water tanks, as to why it had not proceeded.

To complain about property owners failing to cut weeds on vacant lots, the attorney advised that the same law has been amended to enable any municipality to act on its own to clear the weeds, rather than by petition only, and to charge not over $100 for the work.

The owner is to be notified three weeks in advance of a hearing on the

In All-star game

Wendell Ladner spears Rebs against Yankees

"Ladner was targeted from the outset jammed constantly by a series of towering Yankees plus a personal shadow in North Central's John Hester, who, despite a relative lack of hits at 6-1, compared to West dale's 6-6, kept the Rebel star all over the first three games.

This is what Jackson newspaper sports editor wrote about Hesler-North Central's West dal Ladner who spearheaded the South Rebels to a 57-52 victory in 1958.

Despite this handicap, the Rebel's big gun accounted for 22 points or 39 per cent of the combined total of his 14 teammates. He was awarded the best offensive player trophy and Hester got the best defense trophy for guarding Ladner. The South was coached by Roland Ladner, also of North Central.

Wendell was a big bear under the backboards where he could sometimes elude the tortuous hordes of waving, slapping Yankees and tied the All-Star all-time record of 24 rebounds formerly shared by Gene Chouteau of Rock Hill in 1958 and Jimmy Arthur of Moor Point in 1959. Both were Rebels.

In the opening game of the double-header the South Rebels made it two in a row, they only having played two, by holding on to a tiny lead to win, 30-38. Playing for the Rebels were Ann Moran of Hesler-North Central, Diane Pavolini, Pass Christian and Rita Jo Jarrell, Pearl River Central.

The North started strong with emphasis on offense and possession. They lead throughout the first quarter which ended 12-10, Yankees. In the second period a number of missed throws proved costly to the North and the Rebels moved up one point to be on the short side of 24-23. Full game statistics show the South won 17 of 27 free throws, the North only eight of 19.

The South was ahead only once in the first half when Picayune's Ernest Grant connected on a couple of free throws. The close guard put on him by Hester continually rattled Wendell in the first half and he was only able to plumb in six points, a small fraction of his usual average. But the Yankees were in bad trouble with Johnny Guyton, their leading rebounder, charged with four and Hester three.

With Hester riding the bench during most of the second half, Wendell broke away and rang the bell 11 times in the third period to help give the Rebels a 40-35 lead going into the final stanza. In the closing minutes of the throw the Yankees were ahead, 35-32, before the Rebels staged a 6-point streak.

The North was ahead again in the final period 48-47 with 3:36 to go but at 2:56 mark Paul Dodge of Gulfport pumped in two two-pointers and Wendell closed it up with two more. With 1:13 remaining the Yankees staged their final spurt but it fell short.

CYCO girls tourney

WIN OWN

Class will tell.

There's an old axiom in the world of sports and it proved true again Sunday in the girls' softball tournament in City Park when local CYCO moved down all competition and trounced Laramie 25-0, in the finale to win the women's trophy. CYCO is undefeated this season in girls' softball.

During the tourney the winning pitchers in the finale, Local 10, were Linda Lovell and Dorothy Lester while Martin Comprese, Nancy Davis and Cheryl Major were the top four for CYCO. Major received second place trophy.

In the preliminaries, Pass Christian B & L Plumbing with Lucy Carter the winning pitcher, has been Ocean Springs CYCO, by Mary Ann Smith, Edith and Pamela Connelly to Bay CYCO and Laramie, advancing both to the semi-finals. Laramie beat B & L, up Linda, Bay CYCO beat D.L., up Debbie Wohlbach, leading Major, Cynthia Kremmey of D.L., with three for the win.

Clavis is in bumper class

Mr. Chevis, son of Mr. W. H. Chevis of 408 S. Main, will be among 85 enrolling this fall at the University of Mississippi School of Medicine. He did his studies at the University of Mississippi.

The school of medicine has increased its freshman enrollment by five students this year, first increase since the Medical Center opened in 1955.

The bigger classes will help meet Mississippi's chronic, severe need for medical manpower, according to Dr. John A. Gronvall, acting dean.

The image consists of a grid of nine rows of letters, each row containing four letters. The letters are rendered in a high-contrast, black-and-white, blocky font. The first row contains 'SEYOUNG'. The second row contains 'MAN'. The third row contains 'WHO'. The fourth row contains 'CAN'. The fifth row contains 'SAVE'. The sixth row contains 'YOU'. The seventh row contains 'THIS'. The eighth row contains 'MOON'. The ninth row contains 'T'. The letters are arranged in a staggered, overlapping fashion, creating a sense of depth and texture. The background is plain white.

LAKESHORE LOG

ST. JOHN'S PARISH

The Log continues from page 1. The family of William "Billy" Garcia had a big success. Father William grand ole open and to step over $300, and the Grand Ole Opry nominees fund over a check for $1000.

Bands and entertainers from across Louisiana and Mississippi came to Pensacola, La., to pay tribute. Billy was lead guitarist with the Dixie Cowboys Band who play every Friday night at Lester's Friendly Inn in Anzley.

Among those coming from this area were Mrs. Peggy Sims, Carol Garcia, Lester, Max and Sandy Garcia, R.J. Sims, Candy Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Schaefer, Duane Sorenson, Robert Pernell, George Day, Tommy Morris, Sheri and Peggy Morris, and Earl Garcia.

Alice Lyndall and Leroy LaFond were married in St. John's Catholic Church Wednesday, at 11:45 o'clock last Saturday. The bride's parents were Mrs. Ernest LeFevre of Lake Charles and her mother, Mrs. Geraldine Freeman. A reception followed in the National Guard Armory with Marvin, Milton and Norman LaFond, Mike Egan and Romeo Fletcher providing the music.

Kilbride-Mangano rows exchanged in Hammond

Announcement is made of the recent marriage of Miss Madeline Mangano of Hammond, daughter of Theodore Mangano, of Hammond, and Mrs. Ray Mangano of Chicago, Ill., to Ward John Kilbride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward & Rita Kilbride of Waveland and New Orleans.

The ceremony took place at Holy Cross Catholic Church in Hammond, Rev. E. Connolly officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose as maid of honor Miss Connie Kilbride, sister of the groom. Mother of bride was her mother, Mrs. Joseph Leder, of New Orleans. Bridesmaids were Micos Christine Montiere, Rose Marie Tantillo, both cousins of the bride, and Cathy Cain, all of New Orleans. Barbara Leder, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

Best man was Mike Kilbride, brother of the groom.

Paul Atzenhoffer, Joseph Leder, brother-in-law of the bride, Edward Sarra, all of New Orleans, and Teddy Mangano, of Hammond, brother of the bride, were groomsmen. Ring-bearer was Brian Mayeur of Hammond.

Ushers were Eugene McArthur of New Orleans and Biaggio Mangano and Nic Mangano of Hammond.

The reception afterwards was at Cane Tangi, Ponchatoula, La. Decorations included a champagne fountain and a five-tiered square wedding cake. Serving was Mrs. Hugh Hovet. Tea girls were Micos Nina and Linda Montiere, Deborah, Judy, and Ninfia Mayeur, and Elizabeth Mangano.

Mrs. Kilbride is a graduate of Hammond High School and Southeastern Louisiana College. Her husband was graduated from Warren Easton High

When we covered this black monitor a bit less than two weeks ago, it was with the former intention that we not touch it again; for the 10 days allotted for vacation. However, we didn't take the consideration the fact that life would go on, and the news would be piling up in a manner we'd never be able to scale if we didn't catch up at least a few items in this edition.

In answer to "How was the vacation? . . . simply great! A good-time fortnight they may not sound exciting, but sleeping well does what can't be done! . . . it (which was just about daily), is the ideal of living it up . . . and in reply to the inevitable comment regarding swimming pools . . . we'll say no what?? Anyways we had a ball, but I'm kind of nice to be able to communicate with those who truly said they missed the column in our absence.

Celebration at St. Clare's

Clare's Parish hall dance July 23 was a real blast . . . the 75th anniversary had everyone in a celebrating mood, and celebrate it did. Just a few who danced to the really smooth music of the Sardines included Ann and Henry Deville, although Henry isn't too much dancing on his neck, injured several weeks ago in an automobile accident, is still in a cast; Phyl and Jimmy Layman, Dick and Marvin Markel, Louise and Joe Wymer, Gru May and Connie Hartley, Nona and Harold Zimmerman, Hazel and Ted Broiland, Ethel and Lucien Raymond, Ella Jensen and Buddy Danner, Betty and Frank Klein, Cleo and Joe Smith, Eddie and John Klein, Jane and Clarence Herbig, Alice and Shirley Miller, Shirley and B. E. Steinle, Carmen and Cliff Piazza, Eddie and Linda Moran, Shirley and Roland La Fontaine, Marie and Arnold Wolfe, Shirley and Chuck Rene, Chris and Bob Alford and many, many, many more!

The following day Marie and Arnold Wolfe entertained at a large barbecue at their recently acquired ranch, the Lazy W. Among guests were Carmen and Cliff Piazza (Carmen also had quite a bit to do with preparing the delicious food served); Audrey and Pete (and we can never remember their last names); Eddie and Linda Moran, Shirley and Roland La Fontaine, Marie and Arnold Wolfe, Shirley and Chuck Rene, Chris and Bob Alford and many, many, many more!

Among the more prominent notables awaiting our attention upon returning to work was one stating that Pat and Buddy Pinto are now amicably anticipating a visit from the stork, although the message wasn't nearly so subtly worded. Pat and Buddy are parents of one daughter who is just old enough to begin school come September. . . . C'est la vie!

Marilyn Brown, who recently returned home from a visit in Cuba with daughter, Barbara, and brand new daughter, Marlon II; husband Charlie and Marlon's sister, Doris and her husband Eddie Daigle, viewed this property is condemned at the Surf Scouring night. The Daigles were over for the weekend from New Orleans.

Commencing at the NW corner of NW 1/4 of NE 1/4 of Section 17, T. 7, S.R. 14 W; thence running South 990 feet to an iron stake; thence East 1320 feet to an iron stake; thence North 930 feet to an iron stake; thence West 1320 feet to the place of beginning; containing 5.1 acres, more or less, and being part of the NW 1/4 of Section 17, T. 7, S.R. 14 W., in Hancock County, Miss.

You are summoned to appear before the Chancery Court of the County of Hancock, in said State, on the FOURTH Monday of October, A.D. 1966 to defend the suit No. 9989 in said Court of Raphael Hude; Gabriel Hude; Angelo Hude; Clodule Hude; Angela Hude; Carolina Hude Cameron; Palmar Hude; Chidmine Hude and Denise Hude.

This cause being a suit to place heirs in possession of said land above described wherein you are a defendant. This 18th day of July, A.D. 1966.

MARIE E. QUINTINI
Chancery Clerk

Virtues of automation

Col. Marcel Gillis is, or at least has been, very much in favor of automation. . . prior to Betsy, he was able to launch or dock his boat by merely pushing a button. . . after raising his home well above water level, having the lawn filled and held a retaining wall, then added another such device was installed at his residence to allow him to mow the new grass as will. Along about four one morning he decided to put the sprinklers in action. When arriving, hours later, he discovered the biggest lake of floating terrain ever found in these parts. . . someone had forgotten to leave drainage outlets in the cement retaining wall. . . an omission which we noted had been quickly remedied!

Voda (Mrs. Jack) Kaeland remains quite modest in view of the fact that she hosted a 152 triplicate in Sun Miss Fit competition at Tower Lanes a couple of weeks ago.

One (Mrs. Martin) Markel and Gerrri (Mrs. Sam) Blanchard hosted a car party at the Market home on Mollere Drive on Tuesday, July 18. It was a combined benefit-pleasure affair. . . some of the guests included Winnie (Mrs. Richard) Pennington, Jane (Mrs. James) Dees, Gladys (Mrs. Harold) Hicks, Thelma (Mrs. Charles) Dickson, Gerry (Mrs. Charles) Johnson, Tina (Mrs. John) Jumper, Clare (Mrs. Otto) Bourgeois and Mrs. Edna Chandy.

Ray Stewart, Picayune attorney, hosted a large barbecue at his Jordan River home last Thursday.

Capdepons and company

Cap and Henry Capdepon are having quite a summer. Daughter Elsie May and husband Chief Warrant Officer W. L. Higgins and children Jean, Billy and Jan, were here from San Antonio, Texas. Another daughter, Gladys and Lamar Bassett, arrived for a weekend during their visit. In the midst of all the excitement, son Harry, Jr., Lt. U.S. Marine Corps, wife Charlotte and children Harry III, Bridget and Wesley drove in from Cherry Point, N. C. The junior Capdepons spent part of their leave in the Bay, in Pascagoula and in Picayune, where Charlotte's parents live. They took a night off to make the Lionel Hampton show at Al Martini's as Harry and Lionel are long-time service friends.

Adele and Vern Show had one of the largest Fourth of July barbecues around. . . and although we're late, late, with the item, we'll say that it was just too good a party to go unmentioned. . . even though those who decided upon a stroll to the beach got soaked in a sudden

Happy birthday greetings go to our good friend Jerome Carver who cut his cake on Wednesday, July 27; to Margie (Mrs. Sidney) Woods, Margie celebrated on July 22, and to Sgt. Douglas Wayne Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Smith of 1005 Main St., Biloxi.

We had no time to pick up details, which probably were in last week's birth column anyway, but do want to offer congratulations to pretty blonde Linda and Henry Heitzmann, Jr. upon the arrival of their first. . . a little girl, born at Hancock General last week.

Ada Edel is, we're most happy to report, recuperating satisfactorily from her second bout with eye surgery within the past year.

Little Laurie Gex, she of the enormous brown eyes, reached the ripe old age of four on Saturday, July 23. The occasion was marked by a rather large party given by her exhausted parents, Nancy and Lucien.

Peggy and Floyd Hepting and the little ones are at present enjoying a Florida vacation. Gerrri and Sam Blanchard's numerous travels included a visit to Crowley, La., for a very large reunion of Gerrri's father's family. . . the affair, which son Chip naturally attended also, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kerr of July 17. A smorgasbord type feed was served on a T shaped table covered in yellow linen with daisies and fern making up centerpieces.

Realtors loose ground, may end season in tie

The unforeseen has happened and that's what makes baseball a national pastime.

After going virtually all season without a defeat in the Bay Men's Softball League, Southern Realty lost to Chateau Seu last Wednesday, 3-0, for its second consecutive defeat within four days. The realtors are now in a vulnerable spot.

They were scheduled to play Travirco last night in the second to last game of the season and Anthony plays Chateau Seu in the last game. Should Southern Realty lose, the season will end with a tie for first place between the Realtors and the winners of the Anthony-Chateau Seu game.

Regardless of the outcome of any of these games there will be a tie for third slot which will be played off Friday night. Should a tie for first result from last night's play, it will also be played off then.

Next week is the district qualifying tournament at Biloxi.

The following week, starting Monday, Aug. 15, will be the play-offs between the top four teams in the Bay Softball League, Southern Realty, Anthony, Chateau Seu and Trapani.

Other scores during the seven-day period are: Wednesday, July 27, Anthony beat Industrial Enamel; Friday, St. John beat Travco on forfeit and Trapani beat Longworth Construction.

Bankers bomb Dixie tourney

Merchants Bank, which wound up in third slot in Dixie Baseball League standings for the season, beat second place Bay Jaycees to win the participation tournament Sunday night in City Ball Park. The Jaycees, in the semi-finals, had beaten Riemann, league leaders, in the semi-finals, and that's a baseball for you.

Harrington performed mound duties for the tourney winners. He showed some fine stuff, holding the Jaycees to three scattered hits while his mates garnered seven and took advantage of several walks and a number of errors to put over 17 runs. The runner-ups, Jaycees, scored eight. Worrell, who was charged with the loss, was not up to his usual fine form and had trouble finding the groove.

Two other games in the tournament, which started Monday, July 25, and ended last Sunday night, are: L.E. Braves 20, Gulf National 1; winning pitcher, Green; Merchants Bank 3, Hancock Bank 2, wp Harrington; Jaycees 1, Riemann 2, Randy Williams pitching a two-hit shutout; Hancock Bank forfeit.
